Jen,
Some suggested changes.

Paragraph 2:

change "decision-making processes" ... to ... "decision-making process"

change "...the core elements of a risk assessment, including exposure estimation, laboratory testing, and field testing." ... to... "the core elements of pesticide risk assessment including: exposure estimation, laboratory testing, field testing; and the integration of exposure and hazard into risk analysis."

Change: "The book concludes with chapters on statistical and modeling tools, and proposed additional research that may be useful in developing the ability to assess the impacts of pesticide use on pollinator populations." ... to ....

"The book concludes with chapters on statistical and modeling tools, pesticide risk management, and proposed additional research that may be useful in developing the ability to assess the impacts of pesticide use on pollinators ..."

Change: "Thomas Moriarty is a Team Leader in the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Pesticide Re-Evaluation Division." .... To

"Thomas Moriarty is with the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Pesticide Programs."

Hi Jen,

I wanted to give you a chance to see the full cover for the Pollinators book. I need to provide feedback tomorrow (sorry for the quick turnaround, we are trying to keep the book on schedule.)

Let me know if anything glaring jumps out at you. I think the full cover looks great.

Justin
